BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Maynard C. Hamblin

Joyce W. Dortch

Frank J. McKeown

Since July 1, 1968, the District Board of Trustees of Palm Beach Junior College, which replaced the former College Advisory Committee, has been working to promote better inter-campus relationships. Through the cooperation of all the individuals on campus, the board hopes to enable the college to run more efficiently and to the satisfaction of the faculty, administration, and student body. ## Dr. Harold C. Manor

Being proud of Palm Beach Junior College is a feeling that comes easily to Dr. Manor. He first became a part of this campus in 1958, and he has seen many changes take place since then. More buildings have been added and the curriculum has expanded to meet the demands of a growing student body. At the same time, the wisdom and understanding of Dr. Manor have also grown. Dr. Manor's actions display his obvious attitude of respect for Palm Beach Junior College and its students. Surely, as Palm Beach Junior College has grown, so has Harold C. Manor, the administrator; the man.

BEACHCOMBER

Ray Harknett - Business Manager

The BEACHCOMBER is the "Voice of the Palm Beach Junior College Student." The Paper touches everything from student apathy to the VWs that are for sale. The BEACHCOMBER can be found every Monday morning at various locations on campus. A printing deadline must be met every Friday at 7:00 A.M., and the notorious staff members have been known to work all Thursday night and attend their Friday classes looking exactly as they did on Thursday - maybe a bit more exhausted. But all of their hard work pays off. The BEACHCOMBER won the All-American Award for Winter 1970. This is the highest award that could have been given to our BEACHCOMBER.

The Beachcomber held its first opinion poll during October of the Fall term. Polling stations, manned by members of the 'Comber staff, were set up across campus to find out what the students at P.B.J.C. are thinking. The opinions proved to be as varied as the issues.

Walker Graham (Advisor)

The MEDIA is the literary magazine of Palm Beach Junior College. Its purpose is to provide a creative outlet for art and literary students. Contributions are accepted from any registered student. These works are then read and judged by a panel of volunteers from the student body. Cash awards are given for the best original works.

The MEDIA goes to the press in March and is distributed to the student body in April. Our fine literary magazine has won many awards in competition with other junior and senior colleges. Its general excellence has made it a credit to the staff and Palm Beach Junior College.

GALLEON

The GALLEON Staff attempts every year to record the events at Palm Beach Junior College and to represent the people who were part of those events. A Yearbook is meant to be a reminder of the things we have done, of the friendships we have enjoyed, and the emotions we have felt; the times we laughed, cried, felt proud or discouraged. Along with the faculty, the organizations, the theater, the sports, and the activities, these are the many different facets of life at Palm Beach Junior College.

CIVITANS

The Collegiate Civitan Club is an active service organization which aids the college and the community in many different ways. The club, sponsored by Civitan International, is open to all interested young men.

Among the club's activities was the highly successful Blood Drive held in November.

CIVITAN BLOOD DRIVE

The Palm Beach Blood Bank was the recipient of over one hundred pints of blood donated by students and faculty members in a blood drive sponsored by the Civitans on November 3, 1970. Club members spent a good part of the day assisting the nurses from the Blood Bank in handling the many donors. Encouraged by the response of the students and faculty, the Civitans hope this worthwhile project will become an annual event at P.B.J.C.

CIVINETTES

The civinettes are the sister club of the Civitans. The Palm Beach Junior College chapter was chartered in 1965. Its members are selected on the basis of scholarship, interest in service to the college and the community, and character.

Members participate in such causes as working with mentally retarded children, supporting community fund-raising projects, bringing happiness to the Old Folks Home, and assisting Senior Civitans in their projects.

The Civinettes have received state-wide recognition for their efforts as a service club.

Members not pictured: Debbie Hoffman, Janis March, Georgia Thaxton, Marty McArthur, Marsha Pennington, Mary Tucker, June Wilkinson, Jan Stroupe, Mary Thompson, Judy Sharp, Carol Stewart, Chris Reid.

The K-ettes are the sister club to the Circle K. The club was organized in 1961 as a service organization for women. Its purpose is to promote leadership, friendship, scholarship, and service through dedication and sisterhood. Members serve PBJC as ushers at school plays, guides at open house, college day, orientation, and graduation, and as assistants in SGA election polls. Community services include work with migrant children and needy families.

The Circle K Club at Palm Beach Junior College has come to be one of the most active and respected clubs on campus. It was chartered in 1960 by a group of men interested in service to the college and community, and the tradition remains.

Sponsored by the Kiwanis Clubs, Circle K is the largest international collegiate service organization, with a membership of over 15,000 college men in the United States and Canada.

A bright red 1955 Mercury was the victim of a Circle K fund-raising project on October 21, 1970. Strong armed men and women flocked to the site behind the cafeteria, where ten cents could buy a swing with a sledgehammer at the battered car. Names of faculty members and political figures served as targets for the hearty swings of the students.

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION of MANAGERIAL EDUCATION

The Florida Association of Managerial Education is the professional and social organization for students in the Retailing Program. It has as its objective the enrichment of the experiences of the retailing students in both their campus and business activities. Organized on campus in 1964, the local chapter is sponsored by the Sales and Marketing Executives of the Palm Beaches.

PALM BEACH JUNIOR COLLEGE BANDS

CONCERT BAND

STAGE BAND

Palm Beach Junior College has both a concert band and a stage band. Both groups are composed of students interested in the study and performance of standard band literature. They present fall and spring concerts each year, and join the College Singers at Christmas time for the annual concert. Honors and awards are given at the annual end-of-the-year banquet.

THE COLLEGE SINGERS

The College Singers is one of the largest student organizations on campus. Its main objectives are to give its members a unique experience in the study and performance of fine music, to represent the college and its music department in the community and nearby counties, and to create the poise needed by college students, especially in their appearance before the public. Interested music majors also have an opportunity to prepare themselves for choral teaching and directing by undertaking various sectional rehearsals.

MUSIC EDUCATORS NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Row one: N. Anderson, D. Day, J. Merkel, S. Smiley. Row two: D. Andersen, S. McNeill, E. Ploumis, J. M. Layton, P. Cunningham. Third row: Mr. Pryweller (co-sponsor), M. Kaufman, V. Dettman, C. Peregó, K. Brockert.

The Palm Beach Junior College chapter of the Music Educators National Conference exists to provide an opportunity for professional development for college students of music education, and to provide opportunities for students to become acquainted with leaders in the various fields of music.

FOOD SERVICE

Students in the Food Service Department participated in luncheons and banquets held in the dining room of the new Food Service Building. Students, under the direction of faculty members Ambrosio, Rive, and Herrault, were able to put into practice the fundamentals they had learned in the classroom.

Officers – from top to bottom – Shari McGhee (Treasurer), Melissa Shepard (Secretary), Rick Coy (vice President), Jay Harmon (President).

Phi Rho Pi is an honorary forensic society for junior colleges. The Florida Alpha Chapter was instituted at Palm Beach Junior College in 1953. The purpose of the society is to promote the interests of debate, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and other speech activities in the junior college. Students of good standing who represent the college in debate, oratory, dramatic reading, or school plays are eligible for membership.

This year, Phi Rho Pi was awarded the Mariner Plaque for having the largest membership in the United States.

PHI THETA KAPPA

Row 2: Paul Cunningham, Frank Bach, John Winne, Tony Millward, Chester Saburn, Ray Harknett, Steve Eichler, Connie McMurray.

The Delta Omicron Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa was instituted in 1943, making it the oldest honorary society on campus. Part of the national arts and sciences honor society, Delta Omicron performs two outstanding services for Palm Beach Junior College. The members help with a bulk of the registration process, and provide a student tutoring service. Members strived to make this year the most successful and rewarding of Phi Theta Kappa at Palm Beach Junior College.

The Science Club at Palm Beach Junior College provides an opportunity for persons interested in all fields of science to exchange ideas, to gain knowledge in their particular fields of interest, and to develop an understanding and appreciation of other areas of science.

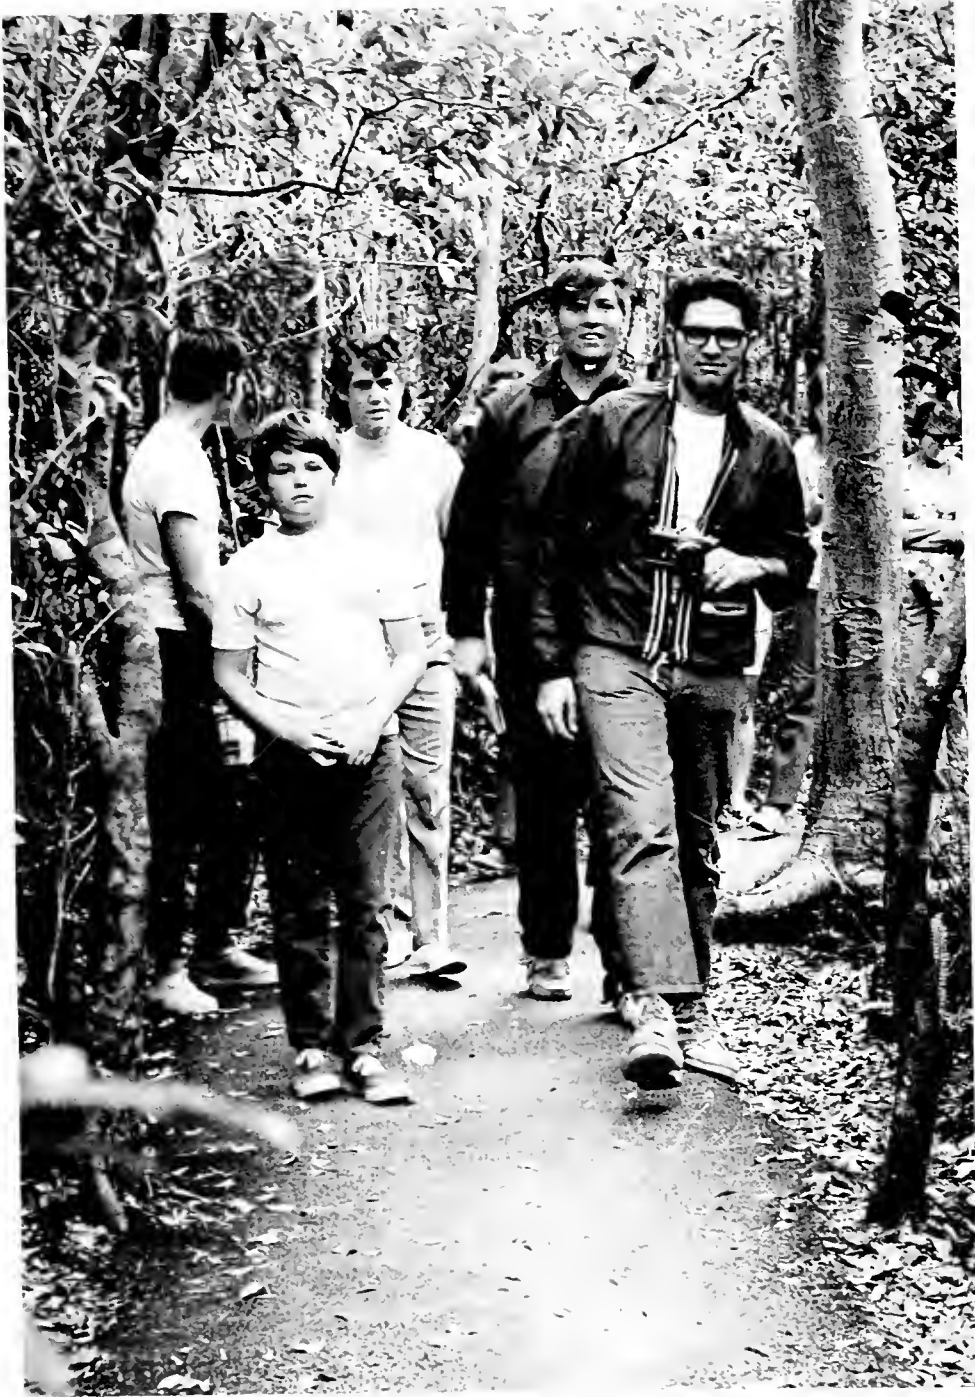

The club provides a full program of entertaining field trips, lectures, and social events. The pictures on the following pages were taken during the Science Club field trip to the Everglades.

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN AFFAIRS

First Row: P. Womack, G. DeBerry, P. Everson, G. Childs, D. Williams. Second Row: V. Murphy, H. Herring, F. Barnes, L. Williams, E. White, C. Shy.

The Organization of Afro-American Affairs is a recently established society. Its purpose is to establish a more meaningful interaction between Afro-American students at P.B.J.C. and the administration, faculty and other students, and to develop a better understanding in reducing and overcoming the effects of racism and discrimination.

The OAA has attempted to fulfill its purposes by such activities as the African-Odum and dances to bring people together.

A side light of the club is the Afro-culture class offered at the college. Mrs. Trinette Robinson is the instructor for the class which emphasizes the Negro culture and heritage.

D. Hopkinson (Secretary), J. Smith, M. King (Second Vice Co-ordinator), K. Gordon (Treasurer), G. Bradshaw (First Vice Co-ordinator), A. Sapp (Standing Member), Dr. S. Bottosto (Advisor).

NEWMAN CLUB

The purpose of the Newman Club is to enrich campus life by providing for the religious and social needs of Catholics although students of other religions are sincerely welcomed. The Palm Beach Junior College Newman Center is located across the street from the campus. It consists of a recreation hall, offices, and a chapel.

All students are welcome to attend meetings and activities at the Newman Center, regardless of their religious beliefs.

Newman officers: Colleen Corie, Joseph Hart, Mary Larrosa, Nora Kelly

Front row: J. Olsen, D. Osten, G. Rourke, N. Kelly, L. Holleman, K. Corie, M. Larrosa. Back row: B. Boyd, M. Kelly, P. Brinkman, B. Green, P. Brinkman, D. Nye, J. Hart.

YOUNG CAMPUS FREAKS

Front row: B. Caparella, D. Kressal (Interim Board Member), T. Harvey. Second row: C. Storch, B. Justice (Interim Pres.), D. Lobeck, M. Balme.

The Young Campus Freaks is a newly organized club at Palm Beach Junior College. Its main objective is to promote and conduct service throughout the year to aid the campus and the community. The club has a particular emphasis on ecological action and encourages anyone to join.

STUDENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDING

This past Fall Term, a new organization was formed at Palm Beach Junior College. Students For International Understanding, (SIM), has a membership of students from many different countries. The president, Jasper Toe, comes to PBJC from Liberia.

One of the favorite activities of the club is soccer and many members have shown interest in forming a team for competition play. This organization succeeds in showing that difference in background and culture need not affect communication between people.

CHESS CLUB

Who are the chess nuts? They are a group of people at PBJC who have a corner of the SAC Lounge all to themselves for the purpose of concentration on the game of chess. During the Fall Term, they sponsored a chess tournament, providing chess enthusiasts with a chance to enter into competitive match play.

One may often see two members engaged in a silent battle of minds over a chess board. Those who feel exceptionally daring might try a game of three dimensional chess. The Chess Club is simple for those students who enjoy the mental stimulation of a chess game.

ART CLUB

Art Club enables art majors and other students interested in the art field a chance to be creative in their own way. Some activities include field trips and sponsoring art shows at Palm Beach Junior College. On the next few pages the Art Club may be seen the way they like to be seen — relaxed and candid.

THE SISTERS OF PHILO

Philo means love. It is this sisterhood which offers friendship, fellowship and hospitality to every Phil member. The oldest women's social club, Phi Lambda Rho, was founded in 1939 to assist in scholastic affairs, to promote loyalty to the school, and to further the social life at Palm Beach Junior College.

Philo Activities include making Christmas more enjoyable to children in local hospitals, making a calendar, a Christmas party, Pledge Parties, socials, road trips, and the week-end. The winter term is highlighted with the Golden Arch Ball, one of the oldest social functions on campus.

CHI SIG

D. Scott, B. Stratton, S. Gaffney, L. Casson (Pledge Master), Mark Bohne (Sec.), J. Connell, J. Timmons, R. Tobin (Pledge Master), M. LaValley.

Chi Sig was founded on the Palm Beach Junior College campus in January of 1958. During the thirteen years of its existence, Chi Sig has emerged as one of the outstanding young men's groups. The quest to attain the virtues of their motto: "We take good men and make them better," has led Chi Sig to its position of prominence. The bonds of brotherhood and friendship are the nucleus about which the club evolves.

WALKATHON

The second annual Walkathon, sponsored by the Lake Worth Zonta Club in conjunction with the PBJC Alumni Association, was held on October 31, 1970. The purpose of the walk was to raise scholarship funds for deserving students. Money collected by the hearty walkers was matched by Federal funds in a four-to-one ratio.

Walkers departed from the West Palm Beach Municipal Parking Lot early in the morning and covered all or part of the ten-mile course to the Junior College. Monies are collected from sponsors who pledge a certain amount per mile walked by the participants.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Sydney J. Harris

A noted visitor to Palm Beach Junior College during the Winter Term of 1970 was Sydney J. Harris, well-known newspaper columnist and reporter. Mr. Harris' column, "Strictly Personal," appears daily in the major newspapers of the country.

Mr. Harris delivered a crisp and lively address to the students and faculty members who filled the auditorium to hear him. The speech and the question and answer period that followed left much of the audience impressed with the knowledge and wit of one of America's most widely read newspaper columnists.

Julian Bond

The controversial Julian Bond spoke to a turn-away crowd of students, faculty members, and community leaders on October 5, 1970. Mr. Bond, a state representative from Georgia and an eloquent advocate of the civil rights movement, spoke of the problems of the black people in America. To say the least, the outspoken Mr. Bond stimulated the audience with his interesting and provocative speech.

A New Organization On Campus- THE YOUNG REPUBLICANS

This organization is dedicated to strengthening the free enterprise system through education and to creating an awareness of an interest in politics and public affairs among young voters. The Young Republican Club promotes the ideals of the Republican Party and encourages participation in Republican Party activities. It is affiliated with local, state, and national Young Republican Clubs. Though not officially recognized as a campus organization, certification by the Faculty Senate is expected in the near future.

FACULTY ART SHOWS

Periodically throughout the year, exhibitions of drawings, paintings and sculptures by the Art Department faculty are held in the lobby of the Humanities Building. Here, each faculty member has an opportunity to display his talent as an artist for the benefit and enrichment of all. Artistic exhibitions are also held for students, local artists, and nationally-known contemporary artists.

FOOD SERVICE LUNCHEONS

The completion of the Food Service Building, with its large dining room and kitchen facilities, enabled students in the Food Service program to gain practical experience for their careers. A number of banquets and luncheons were held in the new dining area, with PBJC students preparing and serving the meals.

Pictured above is a luncheon of the Florida Association of Criminal Justice Educators held on January 29, 1971. The luncheon was hosted by Mr. Lawrence Tuttle and Mr. Joseph Macy, PBJC instructors, with the cooperation of the Food Service Department. Scott Gibson served as student manager for the event.

ASTROLOGY ANTHOLOGY

Which sign of the zodiac do you fall under? The PBJC Forensics presented Astrology Anthology – a literary tour through the zodiac. A tour including selected works of author's representing each of the twelve signs. Which writers and what ideas are characteristic of your astrological sign?

THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO

The Marriage of Figaro is a delightful, funny and slightly naughty story set to music brilliantly by the master himself – Mozart. It contains all the elements to make a good present day soap opera. After giving a splendid performance, all the cast joined together for a jubilant finale.

SIR GAWAIN AND THE GREEN KNIGHT was the fall term production of Palm Beach Junior College Forensics. The presentation of this fourteenth century classic occurred on November 20 and 21, 1970.

SIR GAWAIN AND THE GREEN KNIGHT is an Arthurian romance of love, brave deeds and magic. The charming story was effectively communicated by the talented cast and production staff.

THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH

In October of 1970, Phi Rho Pi of Palm Beach Junior College presented "The Skin of our Teeth," an antic satirical comedy by Thornton Wilder. From the Ice Age through the Plague, the characters always survived to face further disasters.

The cast was immense; the entire production was flamboyant. The "family" of students involved in the production of the play, like the Antrobus family featured in the play, faced their share of problems. Costumes and unusual props were difficult to obtain.

The play's message is universal. In these times of war, poverty, and natural disasters, it is a welcome revelation that, through all conditions and events, man will pull through by the skin of his teeth.

OH DAD, POOR DAD,

*Mama's Hung
You in the

And I'm Feelin'
So Sad*

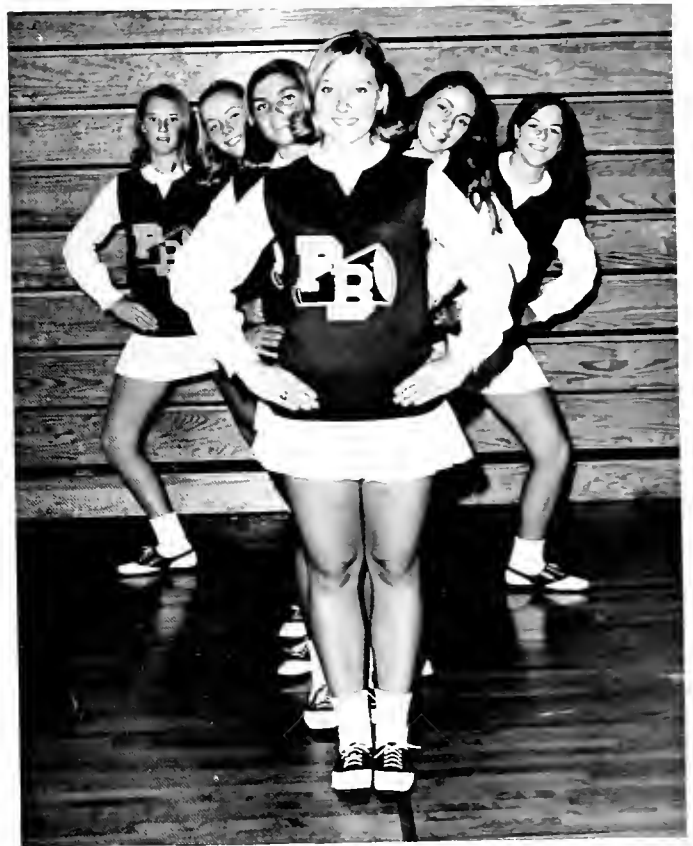

During the winter term, the College Players presented the most unusual play of the year, "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' so Sad." Directed and produced by Mr. Arthur Musto and Mr. Frank Leahy, the play provoked laughs as long as its title, but the thoughts it provoked in the minds of the audience were longer and deeper. The characters in Arthur Kopit's comical mystery play were skillfully portrayed by the cast. They created a variety of moods from almost slapstick comedy to bizarre terror. Few who saw the play will forget this amusing, confusing fantastic farce.

The 1970-71 season saw the Pacer Golf Team participate in a number of tournaments sponsored by junior colleges and golf courses throughout the state. These events, which ranged from thirty-six to seventy-two holes in length, were held during both the fall and spring months. Members of Coach Ray Daugherty's team were able to practice at the West Palm Beach Country Club and at the Atlantis Golf Club. The season ended for the team with the state tournament in May.

The goal of the 1970-71 Tennis Team was to better the enviable record of the '69-70 team which finished with a 15-3 record, second place in the state of Florida, and third place in the nation. Three returning lettermen and three promising newcomers formed the nucleus of the powerful team. Hours of practice refined the talents of each individual and contributed to a most successful season for the team.

The Palm Beach Junior College Pacers opened the basketball season with a win, yet they finished with a record of 5-19. The team members practiced hard and gave their best in every game, though they were often lacking in support from the student body. Coach Jim Tanner, in his last year as basketball coach, was always a voice of support for the team. Regardless of the numerical results, an honest effort and fair play is always a success.

BASEBALL

The Pacer baseball team played a total of forty games from February to May, including games in Division IV of the Florida Junior College Conference. Eight Fall practice games and twelve exhibition games with the Ft. Lauderdale Baseball School helped the team prepare for its heavy schedule. The returning lettermen aided in forming the nucleus of the team.

CHEERLEADERS

Six of the biggest fans of the Pacer Basketball Team were the enthusiastic Cheerleaders. Their spirit helped the Pacers through close games both home and away, and the Basketball Team greatly appreciated their efforts. The six girls were chosen on the basis of cheering ability by a panel of judges consisting of faculty members, basketball players, and former cheerleaders. Gay Hitchcock served as captain and Barbie Ur served as co-captain.

INTRAMURALS

FLAG TAG FOOTBALL

One of the most popular of the intramural activities was Flag Tag Football, which was held during September and October on the field south of the Gym. Eight teams fought for the championship, but only one, the Delray Maulers, was successful. The Maulers, pictured above, won the championship by defeating the J.C. Squishers in the title game on October 19, 1970.

VOLLEYBALL

Intramural Volleyball was held during the Fall Term for three different groups. Women's teams participated in games during September, men's teams competed during November, and Co-educational play took place later in the year. A women's extramural team was formed, and these girls represented PBJC in competition throughout the state. Winners of each group of competitive Volleyball were invited to represent PBJC on Sports Day at Miami-Dade Junior College on October 16.

BOWLING

Intermural Bowling is just one part of the I&R program at Palm Beach Junior College. It is a much enjoyed sport on campus. Co-ed bowling was held during October of this school year, at the Major League Lanes. A tournament, The PBJC Invitational, was held near the end of the fall term.

BASKETBALL

Intramural Basketball took place during the month of March. Although the Pacer Basketball Team finished its season in February, the sound of bouncing basketballs could still be heard throughout the Gym, as energetic young men displayed their skills in intra-mural competition.

BADMINTON

Badminton was the first intramural activity of the Winter Term. Singles and doubles play for both men and women took place. Several of the competitors represented PBJC in extramural activities later in the year.

TENNIS

Intramural Tennis was held during the Winter Term for both men and women interested in this sport. Girls were invited to try out for the Women's Extramural Tennis Team, which participated in matches with other schools. The 1970 Women's Extramural Team is pictured above.

Glenn Marsteller

The GALLEON staff wishes to sincerely thank Mr. Richard H. Gross, Mr. Glen A. Marsteller, and Mr. John M. Schmiederer, PBJC instructors, without whose fine photography the GALLEON would not have been completed. When the staff found itself without a photographer in the beginning of the year, it turned to these three men, and they responded with many fine pictures.

Special thanks are also in order for Mr. W. Patrick Slatery of the PBJC Art Department, the College News Bureau, Tom Shores, and our advisor, Mrs. Olga L. Connelly. The staff appreciates their work, as well as the contributions made by the many other people who assisted in the preparation of the GALLEON.
